Programme Report

The extension activity on “Plan your own Tree” as part of World Environment Day Celebration Programme for the students of SSV College organized by the NSS Unit no. 49 of SSV College was conducted on 5th June 2018.

Programme Description in detail

Inauguration of 'Plan Your Own Tree' Scheme:

The celebration commenced with the gracious presence of Principal Dr. Padma. P, who inaugurated the 'Plan Your Own Tree' scheme by planting a sapling in the college campus. This symbolic act represented the college's commitment to environmental preservation and inspired the students to follow suit.

Seminar on Environmental Issues:

Following the inauguration, a seminar was conducted, addressing various environmental issues such as climate change, deforestation, pollution, and biodiversity loss. Eminent guest speakers and faculty members presented valuable insights, research, and potential solutions to tackle these challenges. The seminar aimed to enhance the participants' understanding of pressing environmental concerns and the urgency to take action.

Quiz Competition on Environmental Awareness:

To engage and test the knowledge of the students, a quiz competition on environmental awareness was organized. The competition included questions related to environmental science, conservation, and sustainable practices. This activity not only encouraged healthy competition but also encouraged the participants to research and gain more knowledge about environmental issues.

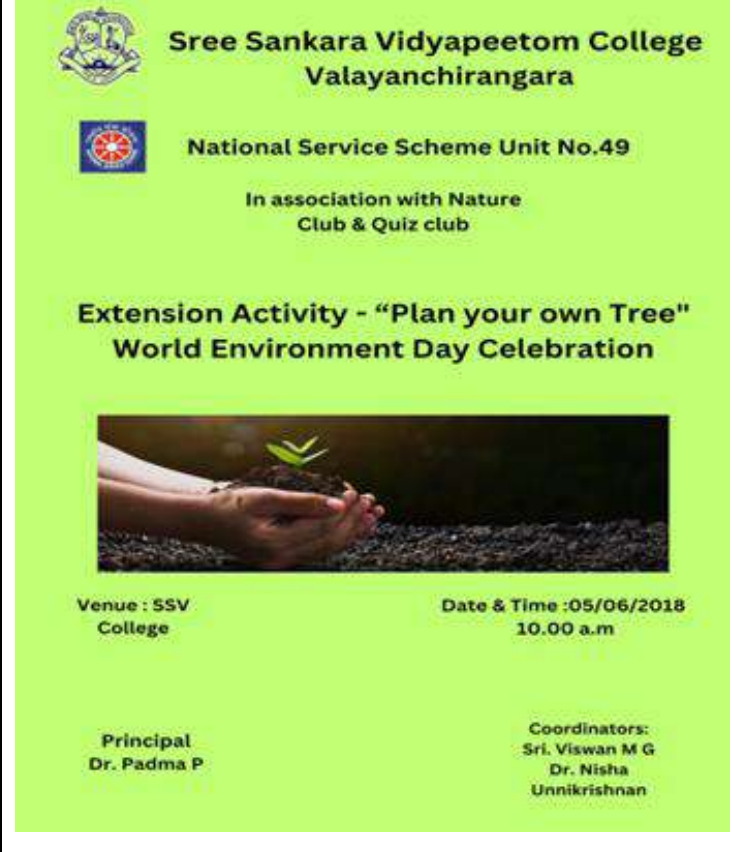

Plan Your Own Tree' Tree Plantation Drive:

In alignment with the theme of the event, the college organized a tree plantation drive. The volunteers, along with 77 students, wholeheartedly participated in planting saplings around the campus. Each student took responsibility for planting and nurturing a sapling, fostering a sense of ownership towards the environment. The World Environment Day celebration for the academic year 2018-19 was a resounding success. Through seminars, quizzes, and the 'Plan Your Own Tree' scheme, the college succeeded in educating students about environmental issues and encouraging them to actively participate in environmental conservation efforts. The event fostered a sense of responsibility and environmental consciousness among the college community, setting a positive precedent for future sustainability initiatives.

Students at Mamalakandam Tribal School

Programme Details in a nutshell
Name of the Event	"Mashithandu" - Distribution of Study Materials to Students at Mamalakandam Tribal School
Nature of the Event	Extension Activity
Objectives	To provide educational resources to individuals or communities who may not have access to them due to financial or other constraints
Date and Time	7 th June 2018
Duration	1 Day
Beneficiaries	Students of Mamalakandam Tribal School
Venue or Platform	SSV College
Organising dept/ Cell	National Service Scheme Unit No. 49
Coordinator	Sri. Viswan M G
Associating Agency	Aalthara Koottam Club, Keezhillam
Outcome/ Benefit of the programme	Providing study materials helped individuals improve their academic performance and achieve their educational goals

Programme Report

The Extension Activity on Mashithandu – Distribution of Study Materials to the needy as part of college extension programme for the Students of Mamalakandam Tribal School organized by the SSV College NSS Unit No. 49 was conducted on 7th June 2018.

Programme Description in detail

Activities Undertaken:

Study Material Collection: Prior to the event, the volunteers actively engaged in collecting study materials such as notebooks, stationery, textbooks, and other educational aids. Donations were also collected from the community and college staff to ensure an adequate supply of study materials.

Distribution to Mamalakandam Tribal School:

The main target of the project was to provide study materials to the students of Mamalakandam Tribal School. The volunteers visited the school and distributed the collected study materials to the students, with a special focus on addressing their specific needs.

Study Material Distribution to Poor Students:

Recognizing the broader needs of the underprivileged students in the region, the volunteers extended their support beyond Mamalakandam Tribal School. They identified other financially disadvantaged students and provided study materials to them as well, ensuring that a wider section of students benefited from the initiative.

Awareness and Motivation:

During the programme, the volunteers also took the opportunity to interact with the students and encourage them to continue their education despite the challenges they might face. The session included motivational talks and discussions on the importance of education in transforming lives. The Mashithandu Project made a significant impact on the educational support provided to the students in Mamalakandam Tribal School and the surrounding underprivileged students. By distributing study materials, the volunteers aimed to enhance the learning experience of these students, promote literacy, and inspire them to pursue their academic goals. The programme also fostered a sense of social responsibility among the participating volunteers and encouraged them to engage in further community development initiatives.

The success of the Mashithandu Project could not have been possible without the collective efforts of the NSS volunteers, SSV College students and staff, and the support of the Keezhillam Aaltharakkootam Club. By collaborating and dedicating their time and resources to the cause, the participants demonstrated the power of unity in creating a positive impact on the lives of the students in need. The programme's success serves as a motivation to continue organizing such initiatives in the future and to contribute actively to the betterment of society.

Programme Report

The Extension Activity on as part of International Yoga Day Programme for staff and students of SSV College organized by the Physical Education Department was conducted on 21st June 2018.

Programme Description in detail

The NSS Unit of SSV College, in association with the Yoga Club, celebrated International Yoga Day on 21st June 2018. The aim of the event was to promote the significance of yoga for physical and mental well-being among students, teachers, and other participants.

Event Details:

Assembly and Cycle Rally:

Time: 9:15 AM

Location: SSV College Gate

The celebration commenced with all the NSS volunteers, students, and teachers gathering at the SSV College gate. The participants were filled with enthusiasm and eagerness to partake in the day's activities. A Cycle Rally was organized, where the volunteers cycled to Valayanchirangara and back, promoting eco-friendly transportation and physical fitness.

Seminar on Yoga and Yoga Practice:

Time: 11:00 AM - 1:00 PM

Location: College Auditorium

Following the Cycle Rally, a Seminar on Yoga and Yoga Practice was conducted in the college auditorium. The seminar was led by the esteemed Physical Education Director, Sri. Anoop Jain. The seminar aimed to educate participants about the numerous benefits of yoga and how it can be incorporated into their daily lives.

Key Highlights of the Seminar:

Introduction to Yoga: The seminar began with an introduction to yoga, its origins, and its relevance in modern-day life.

Physical Benefits:

The importance of various yoga asanas (postures) in improving flexibility, strength, and balance was highlighted. Participants were informed about how regular yoga practice can alleviate physical ailments and promote overall well-being.

Mental Benefits:

The session emphasized the positive impact of yoga on mental health, stress reduction, and enhancing mindfulness.

Breathing Techniques:

Sri. Anoop Jain demonstrated various breathing techniques (pranayama) and explained their role in calming the mind and energizing the body.

Meditation and Relaxation: The seminar concluded with a guided meditation session, allowing participants to experience the power of relaxation and inner peace through yoga.

The Yoga Day celebration by the NSS Unit of SSV College, in collaboration with the Yoga Club, was a great success. The cycle rally promoted environmental consciousness and fitness, while the seminar enlightened participants about the holistic benefits of yoga. The event left a lasting impact on everyone present, inspiring them to incorporate yoga into their daily routines for a healthier and more balanced lifestyle.

Acknowledgments:

The NSS Unit expresses heartfelt gratitude to the Physical Education Director, Sri. Anoop Jain, for his invaluable guidance and leadership in conducting the seminar. Thanks to all the volunteers, students, and teachers who actively participated in the event and contributed to its success. The support from the college authorities and staff is also appreciated for their assistance in organizing this meaningful celebration.

Date and Time	26 th July, 2018
Duration	1 Day
Venue or Platform	SSV College
Organising dept/ Cell	National Service Scheme Unit No.49, Blood Donor Club
Coordinator	Sri. Viswan M G, Program Coordinator, NSS Unit No. 49
Associating Agency	District Hospital, Aluva, Ernakulam
Name of the Scheme	Blood Donation
Outcome/ Benefit of the programme	Created awareness about the importance of blood donation and the benefits of donating blood.

Programme Report

The Blood Donation Camp I as part of Extension Activity Programme organized by the NSS Unit No. 49 and Blood Donor Club was conducted on 26th July, 2018.

Programme Description in detail

The NSS Unit of SSV College, in collaboration with the District Hospital Aluva, organized a Blood Donation Camp with the aim of contributing to the noble cause of saving lives through voluntary blood donation.

Event Details:

Inauguration:

Time: 9:30 AM

Location: College Auditorium

The Blood Donation Camp was inaugurated in the college auditorium by the esteemed college Manager, Prof. Krishnan Namboothiri. The inauguration ceremony set a positive tone for the event and emphasized the significance of donating blood to help patients in need.

Dignitaries' Participation:

District Panchayat Member, Sri. N Arun, and Smt. Sathi Rajan, the member of Mazhuvannur Panchayat ward no. II, graced the occasion with their presence. Their participation encouraged and motivated the volunteers and students to actively participate in the blood donation drive.

Blood Donation Process:

Time: 10:00 AM - 4:00 PM

The Blood Donation Camp witnessed enthusiastic participation from NSS volunteers and other students of SSV College. The NSS unit ensured a well-organized and hygienic blood donation process under the supervision of medical professionals from District Hospital Aluva.

Key Highlights of the Camp:

Awareness and Education: Prior to the blood donation, an awareness session was conducted to educate the participants about the importance of blood donation and its impact on saving lives. Misconceptions and fears related to blood donation were addressed, promoting a positive mindset among potential donors.

Health Screening:

The medical team conducted thorough health screenings of the donors to ensure their eligibility for blood donation. All necessary precautions were taken to prioritize the donors' well-being.

Voluntary Blood Donation:

All blood donations were voluntary, and donors willingly came forward to contribute to this noble cause. The selfless act of donating blood showcased the humanitarian spirit of the NSS volunteers and students.

Refreshments and Recognition:

After donating blood, the donors were provided with refreshments to help them recover. Each donor received a certificate of appreciation and a token of gratitude for their contribution to the society's welfare.

The Blood Donation Camp organized by the NSS Unit of SSV College, in association with the District Hospital Aluva, was a resounding success. The event saw active participation from NSS volunteers and college students, demonstrating their commitment to making a positive impact on the community. The valuable support of the college Manager, Prof. Krishnan Namboothiri, and the esteemed dignitaries Sri. Arun and Smt. Sathi Rajan added significance to the event. By donating blood voluntarily, the participants showed their compassion and concern for the well-being of others.

The NSS Unit expresses heartfelt gratitude to the District Hospital Aluva for their partnership and support in conducting the Blood Donation Camp. Special thanks go to the college Manager, Prof. Krishnan Namboothiri, and the dignitaries Sri. Arun and Smt. Sathi Rajan for gracing the occasion with their presence and motivating the participants. The successful execution of the camp would not have been possible without the active participation of NSS volunteers, students, and the entire college community. Their selfless act of donating blood will undoubtedly make a significant impact on the lives of those in need.

Programme Report

A training camp on Paper Pen and Paper Bag making as part of extension activity programme for NSS Volunteers and students of SSV College & Kudumbasree Members organized by the NSS unit no. 49 was conducted on 1st August 2018.

Programme Description in detail

The NSS unit of SSV College organized a Training Camp on Paper Pen and Paper Bag Making with the primary objective of promoting environmental awareness and sustainable practices among NSS volunteers and students of SSV College.

Event Details:

Date: 1st August 2018

Time: 9:30 AM - 4:00 PM

Location: SSV College premises

Participants:

The camp was attended by NSS volunteers and students from various disciplines of SSV College. The participants showed keen interest in learning eco-friendly and creative ways to contribute to the environment.

Key Highlights of the Camp:

Introduction to Paper Pen Making:

The training camp began with an introduction to paper pen making. The participants were familiarized with the concept of recycling waste paper into useful stationery items. They learned about the environmental benefits of using paper pens, as they reduce plastic waste and promote sustainable practices.

Hands-on Paper Pen Making:

Following the theoretical session, the participants engaged in a practical demonstration of paper pen making. They were provided with necessary materials and tools, such as recycled paper, ink refills, and pen molds. The resource persons guided them step-by-step through the process of crafting paper pens.

Paper Bag Making Techniques:

The training then transitioned into paper bag making techniques. Participants were educated about the adverse effects of plastic bags on the environment and the importance of using eco-friendly alternatives. They learned different styles of paper bag designs and decorations.

Interactive Workshop:

The camp encourages active participation, and participants were encouraged to share their ideas and innovations during the workshop. The interactive session fostered a collaborative and creative environment, allowing everyone to explore their creativity in making unique paper pens and bags.

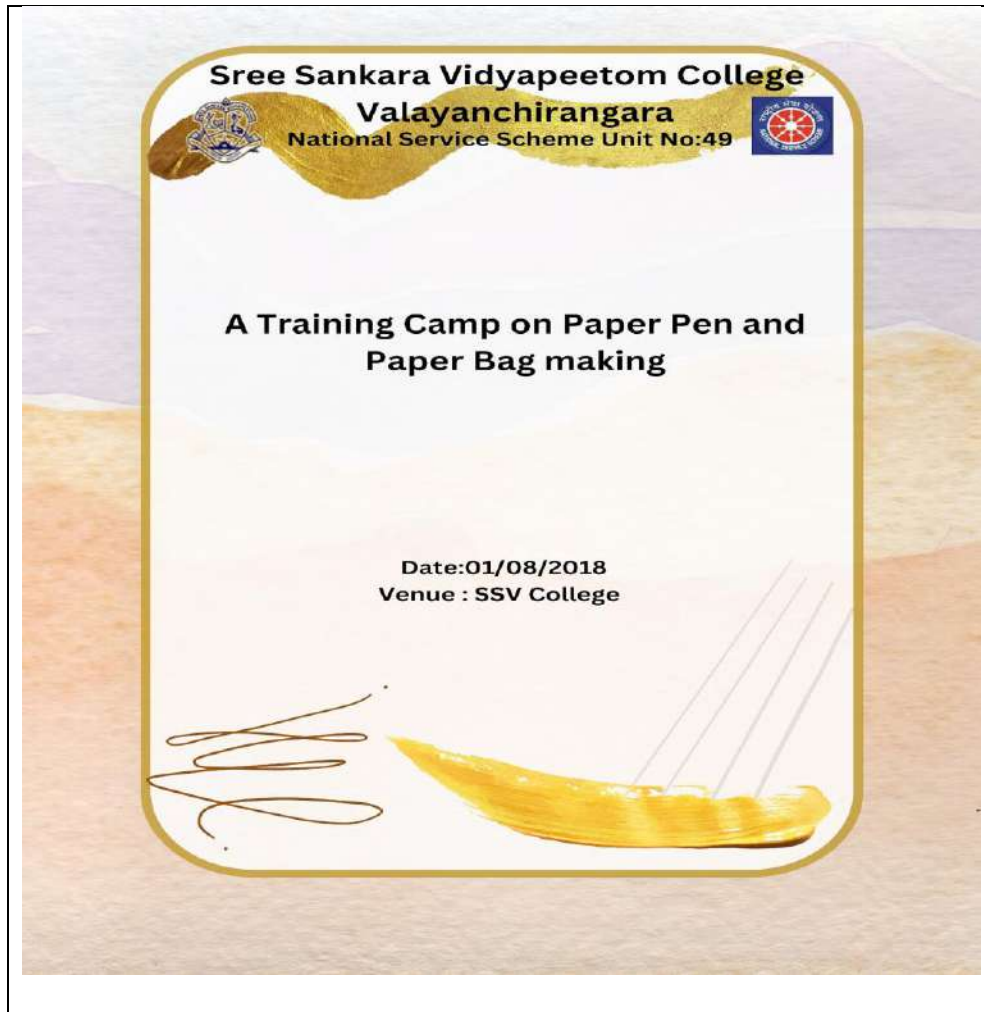

Environment and Sustainability Discussions:

Throughout the camp, there were discussions about the current environmental challenges and the significance of adopting sustainable practices in everyday life. The importance of reducing single-use plastic and promoting eco-friendly alternatives was emphasized.

The Training Camp on Paper Pen and Paper Bag Making conducted by the NSS Unit of SSV College was highly informative and engaging. The participants acquired new skills and knowledge in creating useful products from recycled materials, promoting the message of sustainability. The hands-on approach enabled everyone to experience the joy of crafting environmentally friendly items, fostering a sense of responsibility towards the environment. The NSS Unit extends gratitude to the resource persons who led the training sessions with enthusiasm and expertise. Thanks to all the NSS volunteers and students who actively participated in the camp, making it a successful event. The college administration's support and encouragement in organizing the camp are also acknowledged, as it reflects the institution's commitment to promoting environmental awareness and sustainable practices among the youth.

Name of the Scheme	"Anpodu kochi" camp
Outcome/ Benefit of the programme	The immediate goal of flood relief activities is to provide emergency aid and shelter to those affected by the floods, which can help save lives in the short-term.

Programme Report

Flood Relief Activities:

The Unit started its flood relief activities on 12th August by calling the college staff and students to help the flood affected people of Kuttanad by bringing the materials (food, cloth and other items) to the college. The collected materials in association with Keezhillam Club, Mannoor are handed over to “Anpodu kochi” camp on 15th August 2018 .

August 15-26 :

Flood Relief activities were organized in the college under the leadership of NSS. College Management, Teaching and Non-Teaching staff, Alumni and the students of SSV college generously contributed Food, Cloth , Medicines and other necessities to be distributed at the camps in Koovapady Paravoor, Perumbavoor etc.

16-08-2018:

The volunteers along with programme officers of our unit were very active in arranging and facilitating flood relief camps. Our unit has visited Ganapathi Vilasam High school flood relief camp, Koovappady. Since the camp was organised yesterday; there were no sufficient food items other than Rice. So, we provide essential Provisions and Vegetables worth Rs. 4000. Our 6 volunteers helped in preparation and supplying of food among inhabitants in the camp.

17-08-2018:

We visited flood relief camps at Govt. Girls HSS, Perumbavoor, Govt. Boys HSS , Perumbavoor and Ganapathi Vilasam High school, Koovappady. Recognising the need at Govt. Boys HSS, where the camp was organised exclusively for Non-Keralites, 7 volunteers including the P O helped there for a day. As per the request from the camp In Charge, we have given 20 Mats, Baby diapers, and Napkins, and good clothes collected from natives. We decided to collect food kits and other dress items tomorrow from natives, students and alumni.

18-08-2018:

We have taken assurance of providing 500 packets of meals at Boys HSS, but surprisingly, we have collected 1810 packets of meals, dresses including bed sheets and bathing towels. The excess meals are supplied at MGM HSS, Kuruppampady , ILM college and at Kanjirakkad, Perumbavoor. The team consist of 13 volunteers. Full day spent in the camp by arranging and helping the inmates and in cleaning activities of the camp.

Our 6 volunteers are working at Govt.Boys HSS, 4 Volunteers are at Govt.Girls HSS and 7 Volunteers are at Ganapathi Vilasam High school, Koovappady.They are helping the authorities and inmates for the smooth running of the camp.

Report on Blood Donation Camp in Association with District Hospital Aluva

Programme Details in a nutshell
Name of the Event	Blood Donation Camp in Association with District Hospital Aluva
Nature of the Event	Extension Activity
Objectives	To encourage college students to donate blood voluntarily and contribute to the society
Date and Time	05/09/2018
Duration	OneDay
Venue or Platform	SSV College
Organising dept/ Cell	National Service Scheme Unit No. 49
Coordinator	Sri. Viswan M G, Dr. Nisha Unnikrishnan
Associating Agency	District Hospital, Aluva, Ernakulam
Outcome/ Benefit of the programme	Created awareness about the importance of blood donation and the benefits of donating blood.

Programme Report

The NSS Unit of SSV College, in collaboration with the Department of Commerce, organized the Blood Donation Camp II Cycle on 5th September 2018. The camp was conducted in association with the District Hospital, Aluva, with the aim of promoting voluntary blood donation and contributing to the noble cause of saving lives.

Programme Details:

Date: 5th September 2018 (Wednesday)

Time: 10.00 AM - 4:00 PM

Location: SSV College

Registration and Preparation:

In preparation for the blood donation camp, the NSS Unit and the Department of Commerce carried out registration procedures in advance to ensure a smooth and organized event. Volunteers and participants were made aware of the importance of voluntary blood donation and the significance of their contributions.

Inauguration:

The Blood Donation Camp was inaugurated by Sri. Anand Sankar, a faculty member from the Department of History, who led by example by being the first donor to contribute to the noble cause. His act of donating blood served as an inspiration for other participants.

Participation:

A total of 41 donors, including students, faculty, and staff members from SSV College, voluntarily donated blood during the camp. The active participation of donors demonstrated their commitment to helping those in need and making a positive impact on society.

Successful Completion:

The Blood Donation Camp II Cycle was successfully completed by 4:00 PM, with all the donors undergoing the donation process under the supervision of medical professionals from the District Hospital, Aluva.

Future Plans:

In light of the camp's success and the positive response from participants, it was decided to conduct similar blood donation camps in the near future to continue promoting voluntary blood donation as an integral part of community service.

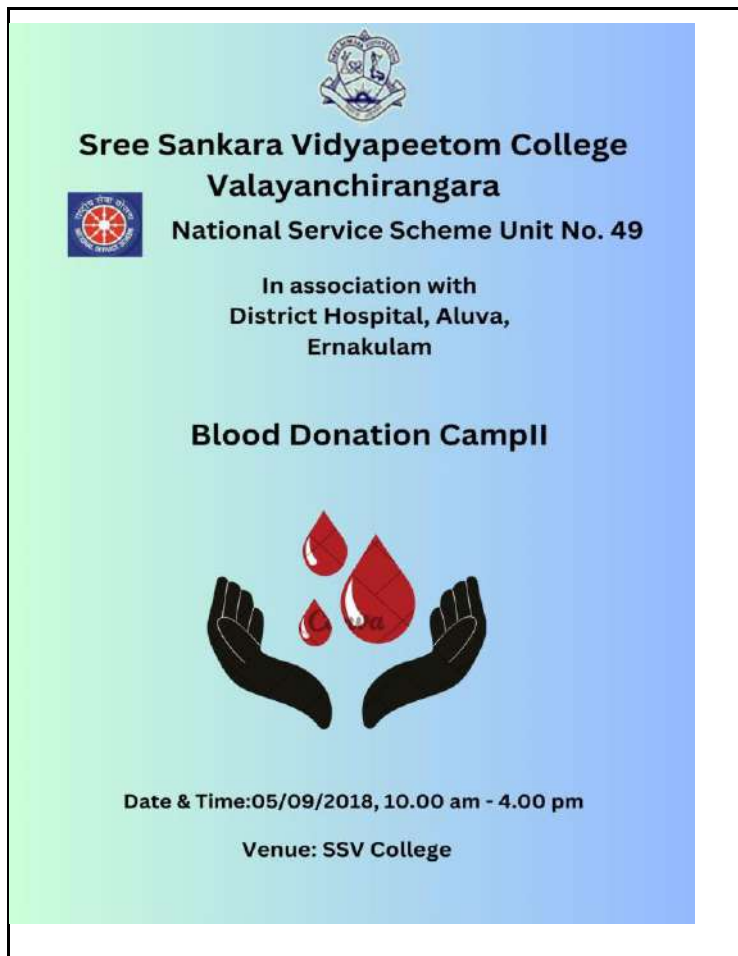

The Blood Donation Camp II Cycle, jointly organized by the NSS Unit of SSV College and the Department of Commerce, was a resounding success. The active participation of 41 donors, including Sri. Anand Sankar's inaugural donation exemplified the spirit of humanitarianism and community service. The NSS Unit and the Department of Commerce, along with the District Hospital, Aluva, are dedicated to continuing such initiatives to foster a sense of responsibility towards society and save lives through voluntary blood donation.

The NSS Unit and the Department of Commerce extend heartfelt gratitude to all the donors who participated in the Blood Donation Camp II Cycle. Special thanks go to Sri. Anand Sankar for gracing the event with his presence and leading by example. The cooperation and support from the District Hospital, Aluva, are deeply appreciated, as their guidance and medical expertise were instrumental in the successful execution of the camp. The collective effort and commitment of the NSS Unit, the Department of Commerce, and all the participants made this camp a remarkable and impactful event.

The volunteers along with programme officers visited Balamandir, Mazhuvannoor and donated around 350 books to their library. There are 40 inmates studying from 5th Std. to Plus Two. The volunteers spent around three hours with them by conducting cultural programmes and interactions.

Programme Description in detail

Introduction:

The NSS Unit of SSV College organized a book donation and cultural interaction programme at Balamandir, Mazhuvannoor. The objective of the programme was to contribute to the education and well-being of the 40 student inmates studying from 5th Std. to Plus Two at Balamandir. The volunteers, along with programme officers, visited the institution and donated around 350 books to their library.

Programme Details:

Date: 10th September, 2018

Time: One Day

Location: Balamandir, Mazhuvannoor

Book Collection Drive:

Prior to the visit, the NSS Unit initiated a book collection drive within the college. All staff and students were encouraged to donate books in good condition, including novels, stories, and literature in English, Malayalam, and Hindi. The response to the drive was overwhelming, with a total of 350 books collected for donation.

Visit to Balamandir:

The volunteers, accompanied by the programme officers, visited Balamandir, a home for student inmates, with a noble intention to contribute to their educational resources. The warm welcome received from the staff, management, and students at Balamandir was heartening.

Book Donation:

The NSS Unit handed over the collected books to the authorities at Balamandir, Mazhuvannoor. The donated books were diverse, catering to different reading levels and interests of the students. The programme officers maintained a register to document the details of the donated books.

Cultural Programmes and Interactions:

After the book donation, the volunteers engaged with the student inmates by conducting cultural programmes. The students showcased their talents through various performances like singing, dancing, and skits. The cultural exchange fostered a sense of joy and camaraderie among all participants.

Promise of Setting Up a Library:

During the interaction with the Warrior Foundation officials, the NSS Unit expressed its commitment to support the students at Balamandir further. The NSS Unit pledged to set up a proper library for the student inmates, ensuring a conducive learning environment.

The book donation and cultural interaction programme at Balamandir, Mazhuvannoor, was a heartwarming experience for all involved. The NSS Unit's dedication and the overwhelming response from the college community played a significant role in making this event successful. The 350 donated books and the promise of setting up a library demonstrate the NSS Unit's commitment to enhancing the educational opportunities for the student inmates at Balamandir. The cultural interaction provided moments of joy and togetherness, leaving a positive impact on both the volunteers and the student inmates. The NSS Unit extends heartfelt gratitude to all the staff, management, and students of SSV College for actively participating in the book collection drive and supporting this noble cause. Special thanks go to the Warrior Foundation officials for their cooperation and for giving the NSS Unit an opportunity to contribute to Balamandir's growth. The dedication and enthusiasm of the volunteers and programme officers are appreciated as they played a pivotal role in making this programme a memorable and meaningful one.

Programme Report

The NSS Unit of SSV College organized an extension programme to celebrate Christmas with the inmates of Bethlehem Abhaya Bhavan, a Charitable Society, located at Koovappady, Perumbavoor, Ernakulam District, Kerala. The objective of the programme was to spread joy and happiness among the inmates during the festive season and create a memorable Christmas celebration for everyone involved.

Programme Details:

Date: 25th December 2018

Location: Bethlehem Abhaya Bhavan, Koovappady, Perumbavoor

Participants:

The programme saw the active participation of NSS volunteers and coordinators from SSV College, along with the enthusiastic inmates of Bethlehem Abhaya Bhavan. The students and volunteers were eager to spend the special day with the inmates and make it a memorable event for them.

Christmas Celebration:

The programme commenced with a warm welcome extended by the volunteers to the inmates of Bethlehem Abhaya Bhavan. The Christmas spirit filled the air as the venue was decorated with festive lights and ornaments. The joyous atmosphere set the tone for a memorable celebration.

Cultural Activities and Interactions:

The NSS volunteers and coordinators organized various cultural activities, including singing carols, dance performances, and skits. The talented inmates also actively participated in the festivities, showcasing their artistic talents, and spreading happiness through their performances.

Distribution of Gifts and Goodies:

As part of the celebration, the NSS Unit distributed Christmas gifts and goodies to the inmates. The gifts were carefully chosen to cater to their preferences and bring smiles to their faces.

Feast and Fellowship:

The programme included a delicious Christmas feast, where everyone shared a meal together, promoting fellowship and bonding. The volunteers interacted with the inmates, sharing stories and experiences, fostering a sense of belonging and love.

The Christmas celebration at Bethlehem Abhaya Bhavan was a heartwarming and joyous occasion. The NSS Unit of SSV College successfully spread the spirit of Christmas and brought cheer to the inmates of the Charitable Society. The cultural activities, gift distribution, and the shared feast created a sense of unity and compassion among all participants. The event not only celebrated the festive season but also highlighted the importance of giving back to the community and making a positive impact on the lives of others.
